Farmers Be There!

The Bow Valley district stands to-day at the parting way. It has reached the point in its development when it has to choose between continuing on the old method of straight grain growing with its years of drought and hardship, (relieved but never cured by the periodical bumper years), and the new sort of mixed farming with a few head of dairy cattle producing revenue consistently every year and the consequently lifting of the dread of drought.

The Agricultural Society's creamery proposition is advanced to encourage our farmers to take the new road in the positive assurance that prosperity awaits the whole district at the end of it.

But before attempting to organize the society has wisely secured the attendance of two of the most famous men in the agricultural world (Mr. C. H. Hutton, Supl. of Agriculture and Animal Industry C.P.R.) and Mr. C. A. Marker, Dairy Commissioner for the Province, who has won world-wide recognition as the foremost dairymen in Canada, to give addresses upon the many phases of industry connected with the production grading and marketing of creamery products.

A full and open discussion will take place at the meeting on Saturday and it is expected that a co-operative creamery will be organized.

Every farmer should make it his positive duty to be present at this meeting which he intends to support the proposition or not for the speaker is worthy of the slightest effort which might be made to ensure hearing them.

Musical Society Score Great Triumph

The musical society has firmly established itself as an organization of great musical ability by its performance of Stainer's "Crucifixion" on Wednesday.

It was a positive triumph for the society and an exceedingly pleasant surprise for the large audience.

In the words of a competent critic whose report of the entire concert will appear in our next issue "the choir gave evidence of very careful training and promise of becoming a really first-class musical organization."

The great feature of the performance was the beautiful rendition by Mr. W. H. Robinson of the tenor solo. Mr. Robinson's singing was a revelation of perfect melody and his exquisite interpretation of the difficult excerpt from Handel's "Judas Macabbe" stayed the immediately as an artist of great merit.

A detailed criticism and report of the musical critic who was

G.W. V. Will Make Request For Cash Gratuity

Montreal—After two days of discussion, which at times became somewhat emotional, the Great War Veterans' association of Canada, at their fourth annual convention here, agreed on and adopted a definite bonus plan which has a maximum of $2,500 and a minimum of $1,000, subject to no deductions and payable to 100 per cent of the Canadian forces. The cash re-establishment bonus is based on an additional $1 per diem for the total period of their enlistment to men who have seen service on a belligerent front.

It is also asked that dependents of fallen soldiers or their beneficiaries should receive equitable compensation in the form of a lump sum, cash bonus, not to be less than the amount the soldier would have received had he returned at the date of the armistice.

Finally, the government is asked to deal with the matter at the present session of parliament in view of the many and serious difficulties confronting the returned soldiers in their endeavours to become re-established. The cost of the proposed bonus would be approximately $215,000,000.

Dominion Secretary-Treasurer MeNeil warned the delegates that the present Canadian government had already definitely declared itself as being against an individual re-establishment, and that their opposition must be overcome before the passage of a measure embodying the bonus could be effected.

Having conceived a solution, he added, it entirely remained to convince the public of Canada.

In speaking of the resolution brought in by the re-establishment committee, the adoption of which he had moved, Comrade Jenkins pointed out that the committee had tried to express in the resolution what appeared to be the wish of the convention. He showed that the resolution had a connecting link with the original G. W. V. A. plan.

Mr. MeNeil, in closing, said, in endorsing the resolution, and that he was out for the welfare of the country as much as for the returned soldier and the last thing he would wish to do would be to embarrass the country in any way. He thought that the basis of one dollar per day for a man who served on a belligerent front was a very conservative one.

More Armenians Massacred

Were Killed Within Boundaries of State at Instigation of Young Turks

London.—Tatars recently massacred 17,000 Armenians within the boundaries of the Armenian state at the instigation of the Young Turks in the Azerbaijan government, according to Archbishop Chokh, an Armenian from Erivan, who arrived in London to confer on behalf of the Armenian republic with the British government regarding the situation in Armenia.

U.S. could Remove Turks From Europe

Washington.—The original position of the United States government, that the Turks should be expelled from Europe is reiterated in a note to the allied supreme council, which has been prepared at the state department and which will be transmitted soon.

The communication is in reply to an enquiry from the French and British governments as to the views of the United States on the Turkish settlement. The position of the United States government is understood to be that there is no sound reason for retaining the Turkish capital in Europe. The United States is said to take the view that the contention that the expulsion of the Turks might be resented by the Mohammedans is not supported by the facts since the war in the near east was largely by the aid of Mohammedans.

Will Keep Down

Lumber Prices
Possible to Prevent Any New Advance

Calgary.—That there will be no further increase in the price of lumber if the manufacturer can possibly help it, was the statement of E. R. Poole, secretary of the Mounties Lumbermen's Association, today. Mr. Poole said that this decision had been arrived at notwithstanding the increased cost of production.

"If the manufacturers can control the situation the price of lumber will certainly not further advance," he definitely stated. Another matter which occupied considerable time of the convention was the gathering together of facts for presentation to the Canadian Board of Commerce, covering 1919 operations. These will be presented to the board in due course. Mr. Poole stated that these figures will prove conclusively that the manufacturers were not in the "profiteering" class.

Saskatoon.—The Prince of Wales' thoroughbred race horses from Windsor stables, England, will probably be seen on the western Canadian race tracks during the big summer fairs this year.

J. Carlyle, manager of the Alberta ranch, which his Royal Highness purchased on his Canadian tour last summer, has gone east to superintend the unloading of the horses, which are expected to arrive from the old country in May or June.

J. Carlyle, manager of the Alberta ranch, which his Royal Highness purchased on his Canadian tour last summer, has gone east to superintend the unloading of the horses, which are expected to arrive from the old country in May or June.

Reports are current that the crown prince asked that his residence be fixed in western Canada as an opportunity to live near his father.

Statement That U.S. Navy Department Was in State of Chaos

Washington.—Not content with the navy department for naval participation in a war when the United States severed relations with Germany, but Secretary Daniels disapproved of the general plan drawn up by the bureau of operations and submitted in March, 1917. Chairman Harris Lansing, assistant chief of navigation told the senate investigating committee.

As a result of this alleged lack of preparation, the navy department was virtually in a state of chaos the day the United States entered the war.

Personal characteristics of Secretary Daniels often made it impossible to obtain approval of important plans and policies. Chairman Lansing asserted, as the personal interest taken by him in minor affairs "occupied so much time that he never had important problems."

Chairman Lansing, at the time war was declared, said there was not a single reserve.

Withdraw Chinese Troops in Siberia

Peking.—The government has ordered the withdrawal of Chinese troops from Siberia. This important action is taken as indicating an accord with the powers relative to Russia, and as a guarantee to the Chinese-Chinese-Japanese military convention which provided for common action in case of invasion across the northern frontier.

Belgians Will Return

Will Open Fire If Any More Shots Fall in Belgium Occupied

Baderich, Rheims, France.—Col. Peroux, commanding the Belgian forces, told the correspondent today that he had sent a ultimatum to the German headquarters at West. Formally to notify the workers that the Belgians would open fire immediately if any more shots fall in Belgium occupied territory.

French Peace Loan

Paris.—Unofficial figures of the amount advanced to the peace loan place the total at between 15,000,000 and 16,000,000 francs. There is a larger proportion of currency than in the former loans.

Lemieux Speaks On

Bi-Lingual Question
Bays Exclusiveness Is Not A Policy, But A Blunder

London.—The King today received the Hon. Rodolphe and Mrs. Lemieux, and handed them the military cross won by their son. Mr. Lemieux was later entertained by the Empire Parliamentary Association at Westminster, Sir Auckland Geddes presiding at the function. Mr. Lemieux spoke at length on the bi-lingual question, and said in part: "I am not speaking as a party man but as a Canadian who gave his all for the cause of small nationalities. From Sir Wilfrid Laurier I learned isolation and exclusiveness is not a policy, but a blunder."

The gathering was largely attended by members of the house of commons and the house of lords, acceptances including ex-premier Asquith, the Duke of Devonshire, Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Bortham, Lord Langington, and Hon. Walter Long, General Selby and Ben Tillett were also present.

France May Retaliate

Further Decline in Franc Value Provoked French Discussions

Paris.—Sharp declines in the value of the franc at compared with the value of the British pound, and the British pound, which the German mark, despite disorders in the Ruhr district, made the further, especially, of a fresh discussion of the exchange situation and the renewal of talk of rigid restrictions on importations as a means of dealing with the depreciation of the franc. Financial authorities are of the opinion that restrictions, affording the only immediate remedy and predict an early prohibition of luxuries and articles which might be described as superfluous.

Canada's Mercantile Marine

More Questions Are To Be Asked With Regard To Hon. Ballantyne's Statement

Ottawa.—Further criticism of the Canadian government merchant marine is forthcoming in a series of questions to be asked in house of commons (London). Mr. Cannon, along with others does not think the whole of the facts disclosed by them were sufficiently explained by Hon. C. B. Ballantyne when the subject was brought before the house. Hence the further enquiry. It is thought that the questions have been framed so as to give Hon. W. M. Macmillan, King leader of the opposition, a chance to bring on his argument that tenders should be called for the construction of ships before any tender is accepted.

This may develop into a lengthy debate, it having been made a strong point when he spoke on the estimate of £20,000,000 for completion of the government's program, in regard to the extension of the merchant marine.

Mr. Cannon, in one of his questions asks who was responsible for the choice of names given the various ships in the service. Cost, revenue and cargo capacity are all again covered by the questions.

To Restore Order

Allies to Allow Despatch of Ebert Forces Into Ruhr Valley

Dietrich.—Two German officers, who arrived here from Berlin, to explain to the allies the necessity for permitting the German army to enter the occupied zone to restore order, saw Premier Millerand and told him the Ebert government had ample force ready to deal with the situation in the Ruhr valley. It is understood on good authority the allies have decided to give the permission. The French government would have preferred inter-allied action in the occupied zone, while the British and Italians favored granting permission for operations by the Germans.

The French gave way on this point in view of the dependence of France on supplies of coal from the Ruhr district.

French coal production has decreased from the old figure of 40,000,000 tons to an average of about 18,000,000 tons yearly. By the terms of the treaty of Versailles Germany is bound to cover the deficiency up to a total of 20,000,000 a year. On the restoration of order in the Ruhr valley, there, depends largely the continuation of French industries.

It is estimated that the earth in one day's travel through space meets 75,000,000 meteors.

Lloyd George Says Allies Could Not Settle Turkish Question

London.—Replying to criticism of the government's foreign policy by Herbert H. Asquith, member for Paisley, Lloyd George gave a detailed explanation of the Turkish settlement. The Premier said it would have been a blunder to have settled the Turkish problems without giving the United States most ample opportunity to deal with it. It would be a mistake to suppose that Great Britain and France were taking advantage of the political disunion in the United States to divide the whole of Turkey among themselves.

"It was only when America definitely refused the mandate that we proceeded further," Lloyd George declared.

The Premier said the principle to set the Sultan had been rejected as inadequate because it left the question of the government of Constantinople undecided, and the Allies were unable to afford the expense and responsibility of the administration of Constantinople.

The Premier continued: "France would have been willing to hand Silesia to the United States if the latter had accepted the mandate. Up to the present we have only received requests from America to protect Armenia, without any offer to assume responsibility."

Are Not All Soviets

Many Germans are Fighting Against Government For Anti-Monarchist Movement

London.—Not all of the workmen who have taken up arms against the government in Germany are imbued with socialist ideas, according to office today. Information gathered by British representatives in Germany show many workmen intent to fight until certain anti-monarchist representatives are included in the new cabinet. The East disturbances which are the most serious in the country, are described, however, as purely Bolshevik.

The indications were it is said, that the peace conference is gradually coming to the British if the Germans should be left to settle their own internal troubles while the peace treaty is not violated.

To Banish Horses

Denver.—Denver is to banish the horse from her streets if a bill now before the city council becomes a law. No horse, cattle, sheep or goat may after January 1, 1925, be kept in the city limits or driven on the streets.

Turk Leader Is Arrested

Constantinople.—Ali Said Pasha, military governor of Constantinople, has been arrested by the British forces in that city.

Soviets Are Still Active In German Revolt.

Leipzig.—Halle, the large industrial town just to the northwest of this city, is completely cut off from communication. Latest reports were that the troops had gained the upper hand after a considerable part of the city had been reduced to ruins.

Saxony troops to reinforce the government's contingent in Halle, are on the way there. In other nearby communities the turmoil continued which has been existing for more than a week. As far as can be learned the workmen's revolt in this section is directed against the military elements.

Saxony is a Bavarian tendentious. The single exception is the town of Falkenberg, southern Saxony, where a soviet is said to have been established by Communist leaders.

Both sides of the Social-Democrats are demanding the restoration of martial law and the withdrawal of the troops. These are among the workmen's principal demands.

In Leipzig the stone walls of the great railway station of the Volkshaus, the largest building in the city, are being pulled from top to bottom from machine gun and rifle fire, while hand grenades have left many ugly gashes. The second the game city is being ravaged, but the stranger instantly detects a feeling of excitement and expectancy.

It is estimated that there are less than 1,000 Communists in Leipzig, although the Independent Socialists are very strong.

One of the chief features of western civilization to-day, is the insatiable condition and unsightly appearance of so many of the small towns.

The first is the result of carelessness on the part of the individual and the town authorities, the other from a false spirit of economy.

As far as the sanitary condition of Bassano is concerned we believe that very few towns in Alberta can boast of as clean a bill of health but there are a few bad spots to be eliminated yet.

The matter of persuading owners of houses to point up and generally speaking clean up their properties is absolutely a personal one and hard to accomplish.

This is extraordinary when it is considered how much an annual or at least bi-annual paint up improves not only the appearance but the general condition of the houses and barns, etc., and the cost is surely trifling in comparison with what a paint up saves.

A sense of pride of one's home town should urge every homeowner to view with his neighbor in improving the appearance of his house, his street or avenue and consequently the whole town.

At any rate the town might insist upon the annual clean up of premises and that way inspire a few at least to indulge in a paint up as well.

Horrible Tragedy at Bassano

One of the most pathetic tragedies which has ever stirred the hearts of the residents of Bassano occurred at Frontier's Bowling Theatre on Friday last, when the young bandy rosters liked the suffering out of the poor old patients.

It was a painful scene while it lasted and the crowd of sympathizers could scarcely be restrained from giving the ropes to give the poor old medical a few strokes to help them in their unequal combat.

One would have thought that the shadow of coming events would have restrained Percy Currie from tearing the feathers of his side-walker so badly as he did, but of course it may have been the last flicker of the spirit of independence which caused him to cut loose in his fits.

There is absolutely no reason for how McLean. As a man of regular deep sympathy for benighted he had only one decent course to pursue and that was the dignified one of refusal, to be party to such proceedings. One of these days he will meet his Waterloo and will look in vain for sympathy or advice from his would-be benefactors.

As for Harry Hedges, says "you can't always depend on him." This may be by way of excuse or explanation but when his attitude that the disposition of the body was not his own, it was a

Gem News

A very interesting U.F.W.A. meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Roger last Wednesday. Owing to the weather, there wasn't a very large attendance,
but nevertheless, quite a bit of business was transacted.

Being in at least on its way as the members are beginning to make things alive viable. The various farmers with their own "special" brand of poison had better get busy.

On Saturday, the twenty-seventh, the "Jailbird Fans" met at the school house and the following officers were installed: Captain, Ernest Williams; Manager, Roy Hudson and Secretary, Trainer, Walter Jones. The boys have visions of the best team ever. May look go with them!

Many who have been spending the winter months in places where the sun shines longer each day than here, are glad they had stayed and enjoyed themselves a while longer.

The first meeting of the Olee Club will take place at the Gem school house Saturday, April the third, at two o'clock.
Everybody come.

Growing Alfalfa Under

Irrigation

The past four seasons have demonstrated conclusively that alfalfa can be grown successfully in this district under irrigation. The need for growing alfalfa is coming to be recognized more and more each year. This is due to several reasons. First to supply the need for feed and feed to meet the requirements of the individual farmer himself.

The opportunity to go out on to a new range to cut hay is rapidly disappearing, and indeed, in the more settled districts, it is no longer possible to do this, at a profit. Secondly, because of the good prices for which the hay can be sold on the open market. When it is considered that from five to six tons per acre can be obtained in two cuttings each season, it is easy to appreciate the value of this crop, and moreover, the value of this crop as a fertilizer for feed if any again.

Those who have experienced the value of grain and root crops which can be obtained from a plowed up alfalfa field, after having been down to alfalfa for three or four years, know it is no exaggeration to state that the land is increased, to grow larger and better crops than was possible formerly, with all the natural virgin fertility.

This article will be continued in next week's issue.

Majorville

Winter seems loathe to give up its hold and allow the harbinger of spring to appear.

The roads and trails are in a deplorable condition. Surely we shall have some permanent road-building this coming summer.

Rumor has it that a branch of a chained team is to open up an office here. No doubt it would prove a great convenience for the public generally.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lang and Miss Lang have recently returned home from the coast where they have spent the greater part of the winter.

Mr. McEwen and family are soon to take up residence on his property here.
May, 25-30-20 W4. We extend a welcome to them as citizens.

John Ely who has rented the Hart-Delta property is taking up residence with his family on the S.E. of 16-20-20 W4. We are pleased to note the addition of quite a few families this spring.

Mr. T. Sutherland has rented the Mogrove acre, comprising 900 acres to be put in crop this year. He has also secured a ten-acre housekeeper. He leaves one step at a time is the safest, so that with a permanent choice is made there will be no regret for either party.

Mr. J. T. Clouston is home from Calgary where he has been in attendance at the tartan Bazaar College for the last two winters. He has secured his certificate. A strike party waited on him at his residence here on the evening of the 24th ult., where a pleasant social evening was enjoyed in games, dancing, etc. Misses not only popular with the ladies but with all classes.

Town of Bassano

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 53 (2) of the Town Act the Financial Statement and Auditor's Report for the year ending December 31st, 1919 is published herewith for the information of ratepayers. CHARLES CARNEY, Secretary-Treasurer.
Town Hall, Bassano, March 24th, 1919.

To the Mayor and Council, Town of Bassano, Alberta:

I herewith present the Financial Statement and Balance Sheet for the year 1919. I have checked all details of cash, revenue and expenditure and the figures shown on the statement agree with the books.

I have found your Treasurer very careful with regard to details and correct in his work in general. The outstanding tax accounts on file have been given over very carefully by him and all errors corrected so that there will be no adjustments to make when carrying forward the errors to the next roll.

While I was preparing this statement Mr. Thompson, secretary of the Municipal Finance Commission arrived to investigate as close view the affairs of the town. He pointed out an error in principle with regard to the depreciation of debenture assets and I accordingly made some adjustments on his suggestions and advice.

Yours truly,

(Signed) H. W. FORD, Auditor.

BEAVER BOARD
FOR BETTER WALLS & CEILINGS

"You Can't Expect Beaver Board Results Unless This Trade-mark is on the Back of the Board You Buy"

Look for it. Be sure this mark is on the back of every panel of wall board you buy.

All wall board is not Beaver Board. Like every other product it is imitated, and while some of these imitations may look like Beaver Board they can never act like Beaver Board.

To be sure of having wall and ceiling satisfaction look for the Beaver Board trademark on the back of every panel of wallboard you buy.
